ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS

THE THIRSTY CROW

One summer day a crow was feeling very thirsty. He flew here and there in search of water, but there was no water. At last he saw a jug with little water in it. He tried to drink the water but could not reach it. Soon he got an idea. He picked up tiny pebbles and threw them in the water one by one. Slowly the water came up. The crow drank it and flew away happily.

Moral: "We should use our common sense."

THE FOX AND THE GRAPES

A fox was hungry. It was looking around for some food. It saw a bunch of grapes. It felt more hungry. It jumped to get them. It jumped again and again but could not get them. It went away saying that grapes are sour.

THE HARE AND THE TORTOISE

The hare and a tortoise were very good friends. One day they were talking with each other about running race. "You lazy fellow, I can win any race", said the hare to the tortoise. "We shall see", said the tortoise. So the race began. At first, the hare went off far ahead. The hare was sure to win. So he slept for some time. Meanwhile the tortoise walked on slowly and reached the winning spot and won the race.

Moral: "Slow and steady wins the race."

THE FARMER AND THE GOLDEN EGGS

Once there lived a farmer who had a goose that laid golden eggs every day. The farmer sold the eggs and got enough money. But the farmer was greedy. He wanted to become rich faster. He was not satisfied with one egg he got. He thought that if he killed the goose he could get all the golden eggs at once. So he killed the goose with a sharp knife. But, there was not a single egg in its stomach. The farmer was very sad. Due to his greediness he lost both goose and its golden eggs.

Moral – “Greed leads to grief”

THE DONKEY AND ITS MASTER

Once upon a time there was a man. He had a donkey to carry heavy loads for him. The master beat it often. One day the donkey had to carry heavy loads through the hills, across streams and over a narrow bridge. When it came on the bridge, the donkey willingly fell into the stream. All the goods of the master were washed away by the water and the master cried loudly on his big loss.

THE CAPSELLER AND THE MONKEYS

One day a capseller was taking rest under a tree. Soon he fell asleep. He had a cap on his head. He had kept the basket of caps beside him. There were monkeys on the tree. They saw the capseller and the caps. They came down. They took out the caps and put them on their heads. When the capseller woke up, he found that caps were missing. When he looked up, he saw the monkeys had caps on their heads. The capseller had an idea. He knew that monkeys copied others. He took off his cap and threw it on the ground. All the monkeys took off the caps and threw them on the ground. The capseller took all the caps and went away.

Moral – “Always use your common sense.”
